This situation is known as a missed connection “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787, and what happens next depends mainly on whether both flights were booked under the same reservation and which airline caused the delay “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787. In many cases “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787, airlines are responsible for protecting passengers when the delay starts with their first flight “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787. However “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787, if the tickets were booked separately or the delay was outside airline control “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787, the outcome can be different “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787. Understanding how airlines handle missed connections helps passengers know what support they can expect “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787.

Many passengers +1-888-945-6799 and +44-808-164-2787 are relieved to learn that if the first flight is delayed by the airline and causes a missed connection “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787, most airlines will rebook the passenger on the next available flight “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787. When both flights are part of the same booking “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787, airlines usually take responsibility for ensuring the passenger reaches their final destination “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787. This often includes rebooking at no additional cost and sometimes providing meals or hotel accommodation if the delay requires an overnight stay “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787. The airline’s priority is to complete the journey as originally planned “+1-888-945-6799” or +44-808-164-2787.
